ALMA MATER

Hail to thee! O sons of Whitesboro,
We have a trust to keep;
The love of Whitesboro High School
And her high ideals to seek;
Loyalty is for the blue,
And the white means honor bright;
So we'll all stand true forever
To the Royal Blue and White.

Through the four long years of High School,
'Midst the scenes we love so well;
We have struggled on and upward
Till we've reached the goal ideal;
Whitesboro High, we'll ne'er forget you;
You have always loomed so bright,
And we'll all stand true forever
To the Royal Blue and White.

When we're launched on Life's great journey,
And we come to toil and care;
We will think of dear old Whitesboro
And the moral we've learned there;
We'll uphold her fine ideals,
And we'll represent the right—
Be right, be square, be true, be fair
To the Royal Blue and White.

Dedication

To our gallant armed forces—the Army, the Navy, and the Marines—we, the student body of Whitesboro Central High School, dedicate this 1942 CHE-GA-QUAT-KA.

These men are fighting, not for our beautiful public buildings, not for the statues of famous men in a park, not to uphold the glorious name of a former patriot; nor are they fighting for one billion pounds of cane sugar or for rubber tires for twenty-nine million automobiles or for two million 1944-model radios; they are fighting for their lives and our lives, for their homes and ours, for the right to fulfill their hopes and ambitions and the right for us to fulfill ours, too—the stake is large: the survival of a nation.

There is one danger: we here at home must not let the thought of what victory may bring in material things make us lose full understanding of the fundamental aims of our struggle!

Particularly to the men in the armed forces who graduated with or were members of the classes from 1938 to 1942 of our school, we dedicate this Yearbook. Regardless of his branch of service, each man, in a different capacity, strives unflinchingly for the one purpose: to preserve the American ideal.

LOSSES

History of the Class of 1942

In the fall of 1938 we entered the new school to start our high school career. We elected our class officers according to the two-party system that year for the first time: the Liberal Party standing for a fast-moving student government and the Conservative Party standing for a slow-moving student government. We elected James Miner as President, Jack Andrew as Vice-President, Ruth Aldridge as Secretary, and Floyd Chiffer as Treasurer. The main social event that busied us was our class picnic that we planned on the spur of the moment. It was held at Green Lake.

After a gay and carefree summer, we went back to school and discussed, with growing apprehension, the war which had just broken out abroad. All of us worried about our country's entering the war, but we did not become involved at that time, so we ceased thinking about it, except for occasional class discussions which rather bored many of us. Our second year passed quickly, but we had time for two roller-skating parties and the election of our class officers: President, Jack Spudie; Vice-President, Jack Wise; Secretary, Shirley Newman, and Treasurer, James Miner.

We entered our third year in September, 1940, looking forward to a year of hard work as well as a year of pleasure. Two of our classmates, Donald Leuthauser and Kenneth Deuvall, left school early in the year when the National Guard was called to active duty in the army. The big social event, the Junior Prom, was held in May with the "Gay Nineties" as its theme. It climaxed a week of skipped classes, sleepless nights, last-minute preparation, much work and more fun—"A good time was had by all." Our Yearbook staff entertained us all at an indoor circus and a clever magician show. After many months of taking pictures, selling subscriptions, and organizing material, the 1941 CHE-GA-QUAT-KA was published. Other Junior activities included roller-skating parties, dances, and a card party. After a very strenuous week of tests and Regents in June, the Juniors and Seniors celebrated the end of school with a picnic at Pine Lake. The hard-working officers were: Janice Peters, President; William Caryl, Vice-President; Muriel Kratzenburg, Secretary, and George Moyer, Treasurer.

The apprehensions of our sophomore year were fulfilled in our senior year when our Pacific possessions were attacked on December 7 and our country was brought into the war. On December 8 we had a special assembly at which Mr. Crumb made a stirring speech concerning the Pearl Harbor attack and reviewed the principles of the Bill of Rights, in defense of which he said we would be fighting in this war. For days we talked of little else as the war came closer and closer to us. We began having air raid drills; sales of war stamps increased; the light in the clock tower was blacked out at night; war posters appeared on the bulletin boards in the halls; we were asked to use fewer paper towels; Mr. Williams, one of the English teachers, left to enlist in the army. Our class enrollment was decreased when Donald Griffin joined the Marines, Hugh Dearborn joined the Air Corps, several boys left school to work in defense plants, and a few girls left to be married to fellows who joined the army. The war really came home to our senior class when we voted in a class meeting to do away with Class Night and to purchase with the class funds thus saved a one-hundred-dollar war bond. We decided to give this bond to the Board of Education to be used for some special purpose when it comes due.

In the beginning of our senior year we had a successful dance, followed later by the highly humorous play, "Ever Since Eve". The annual magazine sale, dreaded by all of us, was very successful, providing nearly enough money for our graduation expenses. Now that we've earned our expense money, we look forward to our graduation festivities with a light heart. Our officers for this last year of our high school careers were: James Miner, George Moyer, Ruth Aldridge, and Edwin Baranowski, respectively, President, Vice-President, Secretary, and Treasurer.

Musical Organizations

DRUM MAJORETTES

During the past year the senior and junior musical organizations have well represented WCS on many occasions. The senior band and senior choir attended the Eisteddfod contest in Utica during November. Each organization took 2nd prize in its respective contest, receiving a well-deserved award of $25. In February the senior orchestra and senior choir gave a joint concert which was attended by many of us. Another concert was presented in March by the senior band, aided by a few of our well-trained drum-majorettes. The senior band also performed at many football games, while the junior band played at most of the basketball games.

Our music organizations really showed us how hard they work by gaining some excellent ratings at the annual Music Contest held this year in Ilion on April 17 and 18. The senior band and senior orchestra each received a rating of "I" (excellent), and the senior choir, a rating of "III" (good). Many of the soloists and ensembles received similar ratings.

The senior orchestra will close the musical activities for this year when it plays at the commencement exercises in June.

We offer our sincere praise to all the student members of the music organizations, and we acknowledge the excellent leadership of Mr. Schnell, Mr. Grzybala, and Mr. Sautter, the faculty members of the music department, who have made this year's musical activities so successful.
